1 INTRODUCTION

The Health, Safety and Wellbeing Policy sets out the College's firm commitment to health and safety. A solid framework is provided through this Policy for those clearly responsible for managing health, safety and wellbeing from the Board of Management through the Senior Leadership Team and encompassing every member of staff regardless of position. Effective safety management for staff, learners, visitors and contractors shall be ensured by the thorough use of this policy.

All staff shall familiarise themselves with the Health, Safety and Wellbeing Policy. They shall continually strive to improve their safety culture to a level where all accept readily the benefits of managing safety.

The general duties set out in the Health and Safety at Work Act etc 1974 require all staff to take reasonable care for the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by what they do, or fail to do, at work.

The College recognises its own responsibility to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and wellbeing of all staff and learners, and the safety of contractors, clients, visitors and members of the public entering the College.

Securing the health, safety and wellbeing of our staff, learners and visitors is intrinsic to our day-to-day operation and therefore this Policy is central to all of our endeavours.

Any persons, regardless of status, found to be intentionally negligent in complying with the College Health, Safety and Wellbeing Policy may be subject to College disciplinary procedures.

This Policy will be regularly monitored by the Health and Safety Team in conjunction with the Health, Safety & Wellbeing Committee and the recognised teaching and support staff trade unions to ensure that the objectives are achieved. It will be reviewed and, if necessary revised, in the light of legislative or organisational changes. Any revisions will be approved by the Board of Management.

Dundee & Angus College also recognises the importance of staff wellbeing, and so a number of policies, procedure and guidance documents have been devised, to inform staff of the different mechanisms in place to support them, not only in their working environment, but also on personal issues. More detailed guidance and information on this and specific safety procedures can be found on the Intranet portal.

All staff should have easy access to a copy of this policy via the College Intranet. In addition, it will also be posted on the Health and Safety Notice Boards at each Campus.
